Superyachts, mega yachts, luxury cruisers and more were on display. Northrop & Johnson once again had the largest superyacht exhibition in the show with more than 22 yachts from its international fleet available for brokerage and charter. As one of the company’s Global Luxury Partners, Arnold & Son had a prominent role at the Northrop & Johnson display and showcased a full complement of fine timepieces.

ARNOLD & SON

SINCE 1764

The Fort Lauderdale International Boat Show attracts a wealthy clientele from all over the world, seeking anything from nine-figure mega yachts to sailing boats and other more modest craft simply for fishing. In the “Venice of America,” Arnold & Son welcomes watch aficionados to preview some of the company’s latest products: timepieces that highlight the quest for state-of-the-art technical excellence, outstanding design and true luxury shared by high-end watchmaking and superyacht manufacturers.
